The SCOUT 350 LXZ, powered by triple Mercury Verado V8 AMS outboards, is a luxury crossover boat that stands out in Scout Boats' lineup for its robust construction, high-end amenities, and innovative design. This boat is tailored for those who enjoy both entertaining and fishing, delivering an exceptional experience in both areas.

Design and Comfort:The 350 LXZ boasts an innovative side-console layout that provides a traditional walkaround feel with portside access to a bow lounge and a well-appointed cabin below decks. The boat's fully enclosed helm and passenger lounge area offer protection in various weather conditions, while the open bow lounge and aft cockpit seating cater to those who enjoy the sun and fresh air. The boat's length is 34'7", and it has a beam of 10'6", offering ample space for guests and activities.

Performance and Handling:Equipped with triple Mercury Verado V8 AMS outboards, the 350 LXZ is a stout offshore vessel capable of exceeding speeds of 65 mph, with cruising speeds in the 40s. The boat's double-stepped hull provides a great running attitude, and its sharp 24-degree transom deadrise helps it navigate through rough seas smoothly. The helm is equipped with twin flush-mounted Garmin displays, making navigation and boat operation user-friendly.

Key Features:

- The 350 LXZ employs a lithium-ion battery system instead of a traditional genset, allowing for quiet, safe, exhaust-free power all day long. The battery can run all the boat's features for a full day and can be recharged via alternators in under two hours.
- The boat features a spacious and well-appointed cabin, providing a comfortable environment for overnight trips.
- An electrically actuated stern seat along the transom converts to a sun lounge at the push of a button.
- Additional amenities include a Lewmar anchor windlass, optional Seakeeper gyro, electric grill, and air conditioning.

Versatility and Innovation:The 350 LXZ is designed not just as a fishing boat but also as a luxurious day cruiser. Its innovative design includes a bow lounge that comfortably seats four people, an electric hardtop sunroof with a shade, and a Zipwake control system. The boat's lithium-ion power system is a notable advancement, offering a more efficient and environmentally friendly alternative to traditional generators.

Overall, the SCOUT 350 LXZ is a vessel that represents the future of luxury boating, combining classic Scout lines with state-of-the-art technology and amenities. It's a boat that is equally at home on a fishing trip as it is entertaining guests in style.
